

George Thomas MERRYWEATHER

Rifleman 1/21st Bn. London Regiment (First Surrey Rifles)

At KES:

George was born in Lambeth in 1887 and came to KES in 1899. Described as a "much improved tailor" he left in 1903 to go to The Army and Navy Stores as a clerk.. He married Edith in 1910 and by 1914 had two small children.

Date of Death: 30th October 1915

Place: France

Buried: Loos Memorial Pas de Calais

George has no known grave and was killed somewhere in the area around Loos between the River Lys and Grenay.

Although the Battle of Loos effectively came to an end on October 18th the fighting in the area continued for a few more weeks.