

Judy Page nee Barker (KESW St. Bridget's House, 1969-1975)

Judy was a pupil at King Edward's School from 1969 - 1975. She started there when she was 11 years old and in her second year was placed into St Bridget's House. She grew up in Claygate, Surrey and after leaving King Edward's trained at the The Wellgarth College, London to be a nursery nurse. Judy worked as a nursery nurse until her marriage.

After marrying she developed a craft business at Bosham, West Sussex where they lived for some years. After the death of her first husband to cancer Judy was lucky enough to eventually find love again with Ivor who became her second husband. They lived very happily by the sea at East Wittering, West Sussex. Together they worked in a successful property development business. They had very happy times on their old river boat on the River Wey as well as many beautiful holidays all over the world.

Judy bought an old farmhouse in France with her sister, Liz, and together with family and friends enjoyed wonderful times in beautiful France spending much of her more recent life there when she could.

Some 8 years ago Judy received the devastating news that she had thyroid cancer. In true Judy style she faced the challenge head on determinedly living her life in the fullest way she could. Her courage and bravery in tackling the cancer and major surgical interventions was awesome.

Love and laughter were a constant thread in Judy's life as well as her desire to live her life to the full. Her family and friends were so important to her. Judy never stopped caring about people.

Judy passed away on 24th November 2020. She is greatly missed by her family and many friends.

